

D3football.com 2006 All-South Region Team

Robinson, Warrick highlight 2006 D3football.com All-Region team

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NORWALK, Conn. – Wesley defensive end Bryan Robinson and quarterback Chris Warrick lead the D3football.com 2006 All-South Region team. Robinson was named the South Region Defensive Player of the Year for the second year in a row, while Warrick was named South Region Offensive Player of the Year. Carnegie Mellon's Rich Lackner was named South Region Coach of the Year.

Warrick, a senior, has thrown for 3,240 yards and 32 touchdowns against just six interceptions. He has completed 60.6% of his passes and averages just under 250 yards per game.

Robinson, a junior, has 95 tackles for the Wolverines (48 solo), including 30 tackles for loss and 13½ sacks. He's also broken up six passes and forced three fumbles. Wesley is 13-0 and plays Saturday in the NCAA Division III national semifinals at UW-Whitewater.

Lackner led his team into the second round of the NCAA playoffs in the Tartans' first trip since 1990. Carnegie Mellon finished 11-1.

The teams, selected in balloting by South Region sports information directors and D3football.com staff, were chosen from 180 nominations by Division III member schools. A total of 76 players were chosen (there was a tie for the final safety spot).
