

D3football.com 2008 All-East Region Team

Boltus, Scalice, highlight 2008 D3football.com All-Region team

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINNEAPOLIS – Hartwick quarterback Jason Boltus was named D3football.com 2008 East Region Offensive Player of the Year and Ithaca linebacker Matt Scalice was named Defensive Player of the Year, while Lycoming coach Michael Clark was named East Region Coach of the Year in the site's annual regional awards.

The teams, selected in balloting by East Region sports information directors and D3football.com staff, were chosen from 191 nominations by Division III member schools. A total of 75 players were chosen.

Scalice, a senior from North Tonowanda, N.Y., recorded 92 tackles, seven and a half for loss, while breaking up eight passes for the Bombers, who won the Empire 8.

Boltus, a senior from Baldwinsville, N.Y., threw for 3,934 yards and rushed for 221 in 11 games for the Hawks. He threw for 46 touchdowns and had just 10 interceptions.

Clark led Lycoming, which was picked fifth of eight teams in the MAC preseason coaches poll, to a 7-3 regular season record and an NCAA playoff berth. The Warriors finished 3-7 in 2007.
