Dick, Mayes highlight 2009 D3football.com All-Region team

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MINNEAPOLIS – DePauw quarterback Spud Dick and Wesley defensive end Chris Mayes lead the D3football.com 2009 All-South Region team. Mayes was named South Region Defensive Player of the Year, while Dick was named the South Region Offensive Player of the Year.

Johns Hopkins coach Jim Margraff, whose team won the Centennial Conference title and won two road games in the NCAA playoffs before falling at Wesley 12-0 in the national quarterfinals, is the 2009 D3football.com South Region Coach of the Year.

Dick, a senior from Indianapolis, threw for 2,785 yards and 27 touchdowns over nine games in leading DePauw to the NCAA playoffs for the first time in the program's history. He completed 71.3 percent of his passes.

Mayes, a sophomore from Waldorf, Md., has 32 and a half tackles for loss and 13 sacks for the Wolverines, who play at Mount Union on Saturday in the Division III football national semifinals. He has broken up eight passes and intercepted another, while forcing three fumbles and recording 63 tackles, 39 solo.

The teams, selected in balloting by South Region sports information directors and D3football.com staff, were chosen from 205 nominations by Division III member schools. A total of 78 players were chosen.
